THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) Available information on the number of under-trial prisoners in jails beyond six months, as on the 31st December, 1999, is given in the enclosed Statement (Sec below)

(b) to (d) Both Government and Jadiciary are concerned with the presence of a large number of under-trial prisoners in jails. Various issues relating to prison administration including the presence of under-trials are discussed with the State Governments frow time to time. A review of such issues was done in August-September, 1999 in the Regional Meetings of the Heads of Prison Departments of all States and Union Territories.

The Chief Justice of India (CJI) vide his letter dated 19.11.99, has impressed upon all the Chief Justices of High Courts that every Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or the Chief Judicial Magistrate of the area, in which a District jail falls, may hold court once or twice in a month, depending upon the workload, in jail to take up the cases of those under-trial prisoners who are involved in petty offences and are keen to confess their guilt. The CJI has further suggested that "Legal Aid Counsel" mav be deputed in jails to help such prisoners
